ZELLERS HELPING KIDS AT CHRISTMAS

By Dave Scott

Every year at Zellers in Simcoe the staff does their best to help out the Salvation Army. Again this year the Christmas tree is in place and folks coming in the store can take one of the many names that hang on the tree and purchase that child the gift he or she would like. Goodness, you don't even have to buy the gift from Zellers... though, that would be nice if you did. The Salvation Army and Zellers have been working together for over fifteen years helping local children, so that on Christmas morning there is something wonderful under the tree for them.

If you're out and about shopping, why not stop into Zellers and head over to the tree, pick a name and purchase that gift for the child... that is all you have to do. Zellers and the Salvation Army will make sure that it gets to the child.

It is that simple and somewhere Christmas morning a child will be smiling!

Thanks to Roseanne White, Pam Welsh and Brenda Dalby for all the hard work they do organizing the Salvation Army Tree... and remember there are still names on that tree so we best be getting to it... so all kids have a great Christmas.
